

The Women's Museum: An Institute for the Future
Presents:

Women's Fashion Through the Ages

Milestones in Women's History

2nd Floor Exhibit Area

Hats are a part of fashion history. Describe what was going on in American History when the following hat styles were popular:

Bonnet

Flapper Headband

Flight Hat

Pick one style of hat and describe it and its era in American history.

Woman in a white dress with a black beaded bag, circa 1926

Icons of American Womanhood & It's Amazing

2nd Floor Exhibit Area

Take a quick look at our Icons of American Womanhood Case. This case shows how women have been portrayed in American media over the years. After looking at the items in the case, enter into our It's Amazing Exhibit to your left. List 5 items that you see in the cases that are in some way linked to fashion.

- 1 _____
- 2 _____
- 3 _____
- 4 _____
- 5 _____

Woman with a red sweater, scarf, shoes, and handbag, circa 1958-1960

Sports & Adventure

1st Floor Exhibit Area

Even in the world of Sports there are certain fashions in uniforms that have changed over the years. We will look at Golf and Swimming to see changes in fashion for those two sports. Find the Sports Cards and look for at least four athletes that participated in Golf and four athlete that participated in Swimming. Write down their name and the years they participated in that sport.

Name of the Athlete	Years of participation

www.thewomensmuseum.org
(214) 915-0860